

Intro to Family and Medical Leave Insurance Recording and Resources

This video introduces the Vermont Voluntary Paid Family and Medical Leave Insurance (VT FMLI). This is open to all Vermont employers with two or more employees as of July 1, 2024. It is completely voluntary: employers can choose whether to offer these benefits to their employees.

VLCT hosted this webinar in conjunction with:

- Hickok & Boardman HR Intelligence (HBHRIQ)
- The Hartford – the carrier selected to offer the insurance in Vermont
- The State of Vermont – the employer that has already been offering it as an employee benefit

Presenters

Tom Rugg – Senior Vice President and Principal, Hickok & Boardman HR Intelligence

Joan Goldstein – Commissioner, Vermont Department of Economic Development

Grant S. Van Der Beken – New England Regional Sales Director, The Hartford

Presentation slides: Intro to Family and Medical Leave Insurance

Recorded sessions reflect current information (including any relevant applications of law) at the time of the recording. For the most up-to-date information, members should email info@vlct.org or use our Ask A Question webpage.

Publication Date

01/19/2024

