

2024 Grants from UVM Leahy Institute for Rural Partnerships

July 30, 2024

LEAHY INSTITUTE FOR RURAL PARTNERS

The University of Vermont

The second round of Leahy Institute grants has been launched by the UVM Leahy Institute for Rural Partnerships.

These grants support collaborations between UVM faculty, staff, and students on the one hand and Vermont communities, organizations, governments, and businesses on the other to address rural challenges in our state.?

Letter of Intent submissions are due Friday, September 13, 2024.?

This recorded webinar explains the application process (which has changed for the second round).

FAQs are posted on the Leahy Institute website.

If you have specific questions about your proposed project, please reach out to Emma Spett at emma.spett@uvm.edu.