Learn About Vermont's Office of Racial Equity

The State of Vermont Office of Racial Equity (ORE) has had the privilege and the distinct responsibility of participating in a wide array of activities across the state and in collaboration with peers from jurisdictions outside Vermont. Some of their work they do by law, some by choice. Their staff is dedicated, sharp, and always working towards something bigger than themselves.

You can join ORE staff on Wednesday, January 8, 2025 for a webinar that will provide an overview of the office, its work, and its staff. Hear about what they do, what they don't do, what projects they are working on, and what you can expect to see from them in the near future.
